of draft final text and push forward the negotiating process without a formal deadline.

The Associated Chambers of Commerce and Industry of India has expressed the view that the Dunkel Package has many positive features and has suggested that with certain marginal modifications in areas such as market access. Textiles and Clothing and GATT rules, the acceptance of the draft Dunkel proposals would be of benefit to India.

Government will keep in mind views and comments expressed by all quarters before a final view is taken.

Export of food and processed food products

72. SHRI SHANTI TYAGI : Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether India is exporting food and processed food products;

(b) if so, what are the main product exported during the last two years; and

(c) whether the needs of domestic market are taken into consideration while promoting and expanding exports?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI SALMAN KHURSHEED): (a) and (b) India exports a variety of food and food product such as rice, sugar, marine products, cashewnuts, fresh fruits and vegetables including fresh onions, canned and ' bottled fruits and vegetables, dehydrated vegetables, pickles and chutneys, papads, fresh and forzen sheep and goat meat, forzen buffalo meat, poultry products, animal casings, guar gum, alcoholic beverages etc.

(c) In the case of itmes of mass consumption, restrictions such as quantitative ceilings or a complete ban on export of agricultural products are stipulated, where necessary.

Government's reaction on Dunkel's Proposals

73. SHRI PRAMOD MAHAJAN:
SHRI RAGHAVJI:
SHRI M.S. GURUPADA-SWAMY:
SHRI BI. HARIPRASAD:
PROF. SAURIN ' BHATTACHARYA:
SHRI RAJNI RANJAN SAHU:
SHRI GURUDAS DAS GUPTA:
SHRI RAM JETHMALANI:
SARDAR JAGJIT SINGH AURORA:
SHRI RANJIT SINGH:
DR. JINENDRA KUMAR JAIN:

Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) what are the details of the suggestions made by Mr. Dunkel, DG GATT, recently, and what is the reaction of Government thereon;

(b) what are the. areas of agreement and disagreement over these proposals;

(c) what steps Government are taking in this regard;

(d) what steps have been taken to mobilise the international opinion against attempts by developed countries to impose their dictates on developing countries; and

(e) whether Government propose to issue a white paper on this issue?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) and (b) In the phase of the Uruguay Round of Negotiations which concluded on 20th December, 1991, a serious attempt was made to resolve the differences amongst the 108 participating countries. As a result many differneces were narrowed down. The main areas in which differneces remained were those of trade in agriculture, trade in textiles, rules on anti-dumping and Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights. To break the impasse, Mr. Arthur Dunkel, Director General of GATT presented proposals for cosideration of Government, and suggested compromises where differences persisted.

(c) Government are in the process of examining the Dunkel proposals.

(d) India has been consulting with developed and developing countries participating in the Uruguay Round to seek support to safeguard its interests.

(e) No, Sir.